NEW SHOW APPROVAL

This proposed one-day show would be held in Colorado (Region 8) probably in April. They are checking on dates and locations at this time. They have heard that our Region 4 show is offering the Ultimate Futurity and would like to bring horses. In preparation, they would like to hold an AHA One-Day Show to get their horses qualified. The Ultimate Futurity (and Maturity) is for Working Western horses. If you would like to read about it, they have a website: <http://www.ultimatefuturity.com/default.html> This would be a big plus for our Region 4 show, since we would be increasing the participation in our Working Western classes.
