NEW SHOW APPROVAL

RE: Consideration of approval for a Region 4 Qualifier

Where: Denver, Colorado
When May 9 and 10, 2015

Dear Region 4,

The Colorado Arabian Horse Club would respectfully ask that you approve concurrent back to back AHA One Day Shows as Region 4 qualifiers. We had tried to put this show together some time ago and could not obtain dates at an adequate facility. In a conversation this last week with staff at Denver's National Western Stock Show, the dates of May 9th and 10th were offered to us as an event had recently cancelled. Being only 60 days from the show dates, we made several phone calls to local trainers followed by a vote of the Colorado Arabian Horse Club's Board of Directors.

The desire was to go ahead and hold these shows, particularly if they could obtain Region 4 qualifications. Three to four barns have clients desiring to attend Region 4, but would be much more likely to go if they had at least secured some qualifications prior to taking on the expense of traveling and showing at that distance. The Shows would include main ring classes and working western including trail, reining and cow horse classes.

We apologize for the late request and urgency of approval, but the opportunity came about only days ago.

Thank you for your consideration,

Jim Hitt
V.P. CAHC and would be Show Manager
